

CityHomes Condos

This serene little neighborhood invites you out for a stroll. Landscaping and walkways between the houses were created to resemble the “mews” in London. You’ll feel like you’re visiting an old world country with a new world look.

Parkview Park, in the center of the neighborhood provides a beautiful setting to walk the dog or meet with friends. Also look for charming little flower gardens throughout the neighborhood.

